

MS Specialist Nurse

Educational Programme Advisor

- Fixed term contract
- Negotiable hours
- Salary equivalent to Band 8 pro-rata to hours worked

A qualified MS Specialist Nurse Advisor is required to help inform and project manage a ground-breaking educational programme, spear-headed by Merck Serono, in conjunction with a panel of healthcare professionals and voluntary sector experts.

Activities will include:

Roundhouse HealthAd has been commissioned to deliver a programme of professional development and educational services to multi-disciplinary Multiple Sclerosis teams

- Scoping of educational needs of multidisciplinary MS teams in primary and secondary care.
- Along with clinical leads, senior managers and Roundhouse HealthAd, develop the strategic direction of the educational programme using blended learning techniques to account for staff availability and the need to provide accreditation.
- Liaise with the various accrediting bodies to enable CME points (or equivalent)
- Assist with the development, delivery and evaluation of the educational programme and devise a system of programme roll out.

The advisor will be nationally field-based, reporting into Roundhouse HealthAd. You will be self-tasking with strong self-management and interpersonal skills. A proven track record in the treatment and care of people living with MS is a prerequisite.

This is a self-employed package, based upon a rolling 6-month renewable contract. Payment is based on NHS Band 8 pay scales pro-rata to hours worked.

To apply, or request a full job/personal specification contact: Kevin McGetrick, Roundhouse HealthAd, The Old Barn, 2 Cole Green, Hertford, Herts. SG14 2NN.

Or find out more at: www.roundhouse-healthad.com/recruitment.htm

Closing date for applications is: 27th July 2007